1. The Leipzig garrison headquarters on the Nordplatz is guarded by four posts, amounting to about 20 men armed with machine pistols. They wear shoulder boards and facings of red with black borders.
2. Also part of garrison headquarters are Richterstrasse 8 (two posts, black shoulder boards and facings with red borders), and in Springerstrasse two posts (blue ground with black borders). About 40 men are stationed here. They march singing in Richterstrasse in the evenings.
3. Hindenburg barracks (Max Liebermannstrasse). An air force construction unit is stationed here whose job apparently is maintenance and construction work at the Polens airfield. They number about 300 men. There is almost no vehicular traffic. Posts have shoulder boards and facings of blue with black borders.
4. Train. A transport maintenance unit of about 400 men is stationed here. They have shoulder boards and facings of black with red borders and insignia of a motor car.
5. Treitschke. Headquarters troops to the number of 400 or 500 are stationed here. The guard post has red shoulder boards with black borders.
6. Stola. In the northern part (see sketch 2) are about 300 men. Facings and shoulder boards are black with red borders. In the buildings of the National Purchasing and Receiving Service (VEAB), Russian part, are troops wearing facings and shoulder boards of black with red borders and insignia of a motor car.
